Truth From Trash How Learning Makes Sense Complex Adaptive Systems:

Truth from Trash Christopher James Thornton,2000 Chris Thornton makes the compelling claim that learning is not a passive discovery operation but an active process involving creativity on the part of the learner

Learning and Soft Computing Vojislav Kecman,2001 This textbook provides a thorough introduction to the field of learning from experimental data and soft computing Support vector machines SVM and neural networks NN are the mathematical structures or models that underlie learning while fuzzy logic systems FLS enable us to embed structured human knowledge into workable algorithms The book assumes that it is not only useful but necessary to treat SVM NN and FLS as parts of a connected whole Throughout the theory and algorithms are illustrated by practical examples as well as by problem sets and simulated experiments This approach enables the reader to develop SVM NN and FLS in addition to understanding them The book also presents three case studies on NN based control financial time series analysis and computer graphics A solutions manual and all of the MATLAB programs needed for the simulated experiments are available

Rethinking Comparison in Archaeology Joana Alves-Ferreira,Ana Vale,2017-06-23 Although comparative exercises are used or applied both explicitly and implicitly in a large number of archaeological publications they are often uncritically taken for granted As such the authors of this book reflect on comparison as a core theme in archaeology from different perspectives and different theoretical and practical backgrounds The contributors come from different universities and research contexts and approach themes and objects from Prehistory to the Early Middle Ages presenting case studies from Western Europe the Near East and Latin America The chapters here also relate archaeology with other disciplines like art studies photography cinema computer sciences and anthropology and will be of interest to a wide range of readers not only archaeologists and those interested in the area of social sciences but for all those interested in how we construct the past today
