The Shadow of an Ass Jeffrey P. Ulrich,2024 Jeffrey Ulrich s The Shadow of an Ass addresses fundamental questions about the reception and aesthetic experience of Apuleius Metamorphoses popularly known as The Golden Ass by situating the novel in a contemporaneous literary and philosophical discourse emerging in the Second Sophistic This unique Latin novel follows a man who is accidentally turned into a donkey because of his curiosity viewing the world through a donkey s eyes until he is returned to human form by the Egyptian goddess Isis In the end he chooses to become a cult initiate and priest instead of a debased and overindulgent ass On the one hand the novel encourages readers to take pleasure in the narrator s experiences as he relishes food sex and forbidden forms of knowledge Simultaneously it challenges readers to reconsider their participation in the story by exposing its donkey narrator as a failed model of heroism and philosophical investigation Ulrich interprets the Metamorphoses as a locus of philosophical inquiry positioning the act of reading as a choice of how much to invest in this tale of pleasurable transformation and unanticipated conversion The Shadow of an Ass further explores how Apuleius as a North African philosopher translating an originally Greek novel into a Latin idiolect transforms himself into an intermediary of Platonic philosophy for his Carthaginian audience Situating the novel in a long history of philosophical and literary conversations Ulrich suggests that the Metamorphoses anticipates much of the philosophical burlesque we tend to associate with early modern fiction from Don Quixote to Lewis Carroll
