on several levels This book examines how literature of migration intervenes in public discourses on multiculturalism in Germany and the Netherlands epitomised in the strikingly parallel debates on the German Leitkultur and the Dutch multicultural drama in the year 2000 By juxtaposing detailed analyses of literary work by the Turkish German writers Emine Sevgi Zdamar and Feridun Zaimoglu and the Moroccan Dutch writers Abdelkader Benali and Hafid Bouazza New Germans New Dutch offers crucial insights into the specific ways in which this literature negotiates its national context of writing This book demonstrates how German literature of migration seeks alternative forms of community outside the national parameters whereas the Dutch literature negotiates difference and re imagines Dutchness within the national framework

Pevsner: The Complete Broadcast Talks Stephen Games, 2016-04-22 This book brings together the surviving texts of the 113 talks on art and architecture that we know of given by the art historian Sir Nikolaus Pevsner on radio and television between 1945 1977 It includes the seven texts of the 1955 Reith Lectures in their original broadcast form as well as lectures that Pevsner gave in German for the BBC in London and RIAS in Berlin and on the radio in New Zealand These talks are important as an example of the attempt by the BBC in particular to provide intellectual programming for the mass population The talks are important for what they reveal about changing tastes in the treatment of the arts as a broadcast topic as well as offering a case study of the development of one particular historian's approach to a subject that was gaining ground in universities as a direct result of his popularisation of it They show what topics were thought to be central to the artistic agenda in the mid years of the last century whether from an academic or journalistic perspective and reveal the mode and manner of academic engagement with the public over the period Forty six of these talks were published in 2002 on the centenary of Pevsner's birth in a trade edition At the time his reputation as an active force in architectural thinking had long been eclipsed and interest in him had waned Since then there has been a turn around in tastes and Pevsner's role within his chosen field is now being actively studied and discussed by a new generation for whom he is central to an understanding of the 20th century There is therefore a real need for this book In addition to containing twice the number of talks as the previous volume it is supplemented with explanatory introductions footnotes and citations It also reveals as far as this is possible alternative versions of Pevsner's texts as they appeared at different stages in the original production process As such this edition can be relied on by academics as scholarly and Tales After Sunset Mary Gerstner, 2014-02-14 The children and descendants of Fred and Freda Suther share short stories and anecdotes about this charming couple who began their life together in the USA after immigrating from Bakum and Dinklage in Germany The original published book was finished in 1993 1994 and was updated with this second publishing to include some contributions that occurred after the initial offering *Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. v. Leacock, 1913 Behind the Beyond is a Canadian literature collection by Stephen Leacock consisting of a truly funny burlesque on the typical modern problem play followed by humorous sketches of various subjects. The cleverness of Mr Leacock's work lies in his keen observation and apt portrayal of the foibles of humanity and not merely in a turn of words. Stephen P H Butler Leacock FRSC 30 December 1869 28 March 1944 was a Canadian teacher political scientist writer and humourist. Between the years 1915 and 1925 he was the best known English speaking humourist in the world. He is known for his light humour along with criticisms of people's follies. The Stephen Leacock Memorial Medal for Humour was named in his honour. Stephen Leacock was born in Swanmore a village near Southampton in southern England. He was the third of the eleven children born to Walter Peter Leacock b 1834 who was born and grew up at Oak Hill on the Isle of Wight an estate that his grandfather had purchased after returning from Madeira where his family had made a fortune out of plantations and Leacock's Madeira wine founded in 1760. Stephen's mother Agnes was born at Soberton the youngest daughter by his second wife Caroline Linton Palmer of the Rev Stephen Butler of Bury Lodge the Butler estate that overlooked the village of Hambledon Hampshire. Stephen Butler for whom Leacock was named was the maternal grandson of Admiral James Richard Dacres and a brother of Sir Thomas Dacres Butler Usher of the Black Rod. Leacock's mother was the half sister of Major Thomas Adair Butler who won the Victoria Cross at the siege and capture of Lucknow. Peter's father Thomas Murdock Leacock J P had already conceived plans eventually to send his son out to the colonies but when he discovered that at age eighteen Peter had married Agnes Butler without his permission almost immediately he shipped them out to South Africa where he had bought them a farm. The farm in South Africa failed and Stephen's parents returned to Hampshire where he was born. 4 When Stephen was six he came out with his family to Canada where they settled on a farm near the village of Sutton Ontario and the shores of Lake Simcoe. 5 Their farm in the township of Georgina in York County was also unsuccessful and the family was kept afloat by money sent from Leacock's paternal grandfather.
