The Informed Reader:

The Informed Reader Charles Bazerman,1989 The Informed Reader Charles Bazerman,1988-12 Let the Reader Understand Robert M. Fowler,2001-01-01 Robert Fowler s groundbreaking method reader response criticism as a strategy for reading the Gospel of Mark invites contemporary readers to participating in making the meaning of the Gospel Now available in paperback Is There a Text in This Class? Stanley Fish,1980 A collection of essays concerning language literature reading writing and the reader A Rhetoric of Doing Stephen Paul Witte,Neil Nakadate,Roger Dennis Cherry,1992 Concerned with both the nature and the practice of discourse the eighteen essays collected here treat rhetoric as a dynamic enterprise of inquiry exploration and application and in doing so reflect James L Kinneavy s firm belief in the vital relationship between theory and practice his commitment to a spirit of accommodation and assimilation that promotes the development of ever more powerful theories and ever more useful practices A thorough introduction provides the reader with clear summaries of the essays by leading edge theorists researchers and teachers of writing and rhetoric A field context for the ideas presented in this book is provided through the division of the various chapters into four major sections that focus on classical rhetoric and rhetorical theory in historical contexts on dimensions of discourse theory aspects of discourse communities and the sorts of knowledge people access and use in producing written texts on writing in school related contexts and on several dimensions of nonacademic writing A fifth section contains a bibliographic survey and an appreciation of James Kinneavy s work The exceptional range of these essays makes A Rhetoric of Doing an ecumenical examination of the current state of mind in rhetoric and written communication a survey and description of what discourse and those in the field of discourse are in fact doing The Holy Preaching Paul Janowiak,2000 The reform of the liturgy has dramatically changed the way Roman Catholics and all Christians understand their worship The arena of the encounter has shifted from a passive experience of observation of the great Mysteries to one that invites active participation on many levels Yet the imagination of many who preach preside and gather to worship continues to be shaped by a passive model as well as by the notion of sacramental activity as a product to be received or given In The Holy Preaching Janowiak deepens the discussion of Christ s presence in the Word by offering reflection on the disparity between the theology and the practice of preaching and some explanation as to why that disparity exists New Essays on the Fish-Dworkin Debate Thomas Bustamante,Margaret Martin,2023-08-24 This book considers the seminal debate in jurisprudence between Ronald Dworkin and Stanley Fish It looks at the exchange between Dworkin and Fish initiated in the 1980s and analyses the role the exchange has played in the development of contemporary theories of interpretation legal reasoning and the nature of law The book encompasses 4 key themes of the debate between these authors legal theory and its critical role interpretation and critical constraints pragmatism and interpretive communities and some general implications of the debate for issues like the nature of legal theory and the possibility of objectivity The collection brings together prominent legal theorists and one of the protagonists of the debate Professor Stanley Fish who concludes the collection with an interview in which he discusses the main topics discussed in the collection
