BOOK JACKET Mapping Landscapes for Performance as Research Shannon Rose Riley,Lynette Hunter,2009-07-16 Although the sciences have long understood the value of practice based research the arts and humanities have tended to structure a gap between practice and analysis This book examines differences and similarities between Performance as Research practices in various community and national contexts mapping out the landscape of this new field Literary Value/ Cultural Power Lynette Hunter,2001 Hunter examines the marginalised verbal arts written and spoken texts that don t fit the conventional patterns such as e mail letters diaries writing and speaking from the Black diaspora women s writing and electronic texts The Rhetorics of Feminism Lynne Pearce,2013-04-15 Is it possible that changes in rhetorical practice could alter not just how thought is expressed but also how it is made Through a close stylistic and rhetorical analysis of contemporary feminist writing from the cultural theory of Judith Butler to the popular journalism of Naomi Wolf and Germaine Greer Lynne Pearce demonstrates how feminist thought is created as well as communicated through the frameworks in which it is presented By linking rhetorical innovation with feminist epistemology in such a direct way this is a

Sentient Performativities of Embodiment Lynette Hunter, Elisabeth Krimmer, Peter Lichtenfels, 2016-05-05 This collection offers writings on the body with a focus on performance defined as both staged performance and everyday performance Traditionally theorizations of the body have either analyzed its impact on its socio historical environment or treated the body as a self enclosed semiotic and affective system This collection makes a conscious effort to merge these two approaches It is interested in interactions between bodies and other bodies bodies and environments and bodies and objects
