Regarding Sherlock Holmes August Derleth,1974-09 In Re: Sherlock Holmes August Derleth,2018-06-14 Once again in old London the game is afoot In these pastiches of the Sacred Writings written when he was nineteen and twenty

August Derleth has recreated the London of Sherlock Holmes. It does not matter that the familiar name has become Solar Pons or that the familiar Baker Street has become Praed Street; something of the nostalgic charm and fascination of the remembered quickening of the pulse and the familiar settings of the original London of Sherlock Holmes has been recaptured in these pages. And what intriguing titles there are to these twelve pastiches chosen from among a greater number. Here are The Adventure of the Frightened Baronet about a spectral image of Siva seen at a country estate beyond London; The Adventure of the Purloined Periapt which is the purest of pastiches and perhaps the closest of all the tales in this book to the original spirit; The Adventure of the Norcross Riddle containing some of the neatest deduction in the book; The Adventure of the Man with the Broken Face a tale of dark waters and eight others. No doubt writes Vincent Starrett in his Introduction we and by we I mean those frantic and incurable Sherlockians who with August Derleth deplore the paucity of canonical entertainments should rather have more of the great originals but we accept the imitations faute de mieux to satisfy a normal appetite. And we accept them with enthusiasm. They are the work of affectionate minds and hands. There is no intention to deceive. These stories and others in their field are intended only to please. They are nostalgic reminders of vanished days and nights in Baker Street.

The Further Adventures of Solar Pons Basil Copper, 1979. In this second volume we again join Solar Pons the latter day Sherlock Holmes and his colleague Dr Lyndon Parker as they solve another four puzzling cases.

The Apocrypha of Solar Pons David Marcum, 2018-11-19

The Meeting of the Minds Derrick Belanger, Sean Venning, Thomas A Burns, Jr, 2021-03-27. In 1928 a nineteen year old Wisconsin college student named August Derleth in 1971 audaciously wrote to Sir Arthur Conan Doyle asking if there would be any more Sherlock Holmes stories. The response from Dr Watson's Literary Agent was a terse No. Then Derleth ambitiously countered Could he write some. The reply Another No. Derleth unsatisfied with that answer resolved to produce Sherlockian style stories of his own. Flipping ahead on his calendar he famously wrote on an upcoming date In Re Sherlock Holmes. When that date arrived he duly sat down and recorded The Adventure of the Black Narcissus but not about Holmes. Rather he transcribed from the notes of Dr Lyndon Parker the first narrative introducing the world to Solar Pons. The Sherlock Holmes of Praed Street. The world knows of Sherlock Holmes. For those who haven't yet been lucky enough to yet meet Mr Pons one should know that he is a Great Detective in the Holmesian Mold. He models himself after Holmes wearing the expected deerstalker and Inverness. He investigates using ratiocination, observation and deduction. His adventures set in the 1920s and 1930s are transcribed by his friend Dr Parker. He lives in London working closely with Scotland Yard and he helps to fill the vacuum left when Sherlock Holmes retired to Sussex. Throughout the Pons Canon there are references to Sherlock Holmes. For long decades Pons fans and scholars have speculated on the connection between the two. Now after all this time nearly one hundred years since the last Canonical Holmes story was published and Derleth recorded the first Pons tale Belanger Books proudly presents the stories that provide answers The Meeting of the Minds.
