The Lost Bible J. R. Porter, 2017-10 The Lost Bible presents a fascinating selection of sacred Jewish and Christian texts excluded from the Old and New Testaments by their compilers unofficial scriptures that present alternative versions of Biblical characters and events

The Lost Bible Joshua Roy Porter, 2001

The Lost Bible Joshua Roy Porter, 2017

A History of the Bible John Barton, 2020-08-04 A literary history of our most influential book of all time by an Oxford scholar and Anglican priest In our culture the Bible is monolithic It is a collection of books that has been unchanged and unchallenged since the earliest days of the Christian church The idea of the Bible as Holy Scripture a non negotiable authority straight from God has prevailed in Western society for some time And while it provides a firm foundation for centuries of Christian teaching it denies the depth variety and richness of this fascinating text In A History of the Bible John Barton argues that the Bible is not a prescription to a complete fixed religious system but rather a product of a long and intriguing process which has inspired Judaism and Christianity but still does not describe the whole of either religion Barton shows how the Bible is indeed an important source of religious insight for Jews and Christians alike yet argues that it must be read in its historical context from its beginnings in myth and folklore to its many interpretations throughout the centuries It is a book full of narratives laws proverbs prophecies poems and letters each with their own character and origin stories Barton explains how and by whom these disparate pieces were written how they were canonized and which ones weren't and how they were assembled disseminated and interpreted around the world and importantly to what effect Ultimately A History of the Bible argues that a thorough understanding of the history and context of its writing encourages religious communities to move away from the Bible's literal wording which is impossible to determine and focus instead on the broader meanings of scripture

The Making of the New Testament Arthur G. Patzia, 2025-08-28 The story of the making of the New Testament is one in which scrolls bumped across cobbled Roman roads and pitched through rolling Mediterranean seas finally finding their destinations in stuffy dimly lit Christian house churches in Corinth or Colossae There they were read aloud and reread handled and copied forwarded and collected studied and treasured And eventually they were brought together to make up our New Testament This revised and expanded edition of The Making of the New Testament is a textbook introduction to the origin collection copying and canonizing of the New Testament documents Like shrewd detectives reading subtle whispers of evidence biblical scholars have studied the trail of clues and pieced together the story of these books Arthur Patzia tells the story answering our many questions How were books and documents produced in the first century What motivated the early Christians to commit teaching and narrative and vision to papyrus How were the stories and sayings of Jesus circulated handed down and shaped into Gospels What do we know about ancient letter writing secretaries and copy shops Why were four Gospels included instead of just one How were Paul's letters sent here and there gathered into a single collection Who decided and by what criteria which documents would be included in the New Testament Explore these questions and more about these Scriptures whose everyday gritty story rings true to their extraordinary message the palpable mystery of the Word made flesh

The Word of Wisdom and the Creation of Animals in Africa Shelagh Ranger, 2007 This stimulating and provocative work provides a comprehensive introduction to African theology by focussing on the role of animals in African teaching The work surveys African approaches to religion beginning with sub Saharan Africa encompassing Judaic Christian and Islamic beliefs and concluding with African theology today It highlights the influence of African theology on all the major religions including the preservation of Jewish texts and the establishment of Christian traditions such as hermeticism and monasticism The author demonstrates through numerous examples the centrality of the natural world to African faiths This she argues is an aspect sorely lacking in dominant religious traditions which have tended to treat the natural world as less valuable than humanity and thus more expendable leading to our current disastrous state in which the existence of animals is put at serious risk She concludes that for the good of the world mainstream theology must be Africanised before it is too late
