TALES OF OHIO
SMALL TOWN LIFE

WHAT is the fiction that you remember—that sticks for years after reading it?

The mystery story?

The swashbuckler story?

The motor-car romance?

The propaganda novel?

No, to all, except for the rare achievements by masters in those fields.

What stories do you remember? Is it not those in which people's very souls are bared, in which their heart-beats are almost heard, in which life is not described but revealed.

Such a book is this one; a book to be read, reread and given away because it is too good to keep; a masterly work—perhaps a masterwork.
