Lee,2015-01-12 This is the first general monograph on ancient Greek dress in English to be published in more than a century By applying modern dress theory to the ancient evidence this book reconstructs the social meanings attached to the dressed body in ancient Greece Whereas many scholars have focused on individual aspects of ancient Greek dress from the perspectives of literary visual and archaeological sources this volume synthesizes the diverse evidence and offers fresh insights into this essential aspect of ancient society Intended to be accessible to nonspecialists as well as classicists and students as well as academic professionals this book will find a wide audience Female Genital Cosmetic Surgery Camille Nurka,2018-08-21 Examining the fascinating history of female genital cosmetic surgery Camille Nurka traces the origins of contemporary ideas of genital normality Over the past twenty years Western women have become increasingly worried about the aesthetic appearance of their labia minora and are turning to cosmetic surgery to achieve the ideal vulva a clean slit with no visible protrusion of the inner lips Long labia minora are described by medical experts as hypertrophied a term that implies deformity and the atypical But how far back does the diagnosis of labial hypertrophy go and where did it originate Female Genital Cosmetic Surgery tells the story of the female genitalia from the alien world of ancient Greek gynaecology to the colonial period of exploration and exploitation up to the present day Bringing together historical medical and theoretical documentation and commentary Nurka uncovers a long tradition of pathologizing female anatomy a history sure to be of interest to any reader who wishes to know more about how medicine shapes our commonly held ideals Birthing Salvation Anna Rebecca Solevåg,2013-10-09 In Birthing Salvation Anna Rebecca Solevåg explores the theme of childbearing in early Christian discourse The book maps the importance of women's childbearing in Greco Roman culture and shows how childbearing discourse interfaces with salvation discourse in three early Christian texts the Pastoral Epistles the Acts of Andrew and the Martyrdom of Perpetua and Felicitas Issues of gender and class are explored through an intersectional analysis In particular the institution of slavery and its implications for ideas about salvation in these texts are drawn out Birthing Salvation offers fresh interpretations of these texts including the peculiar statement in 1 Tim 2 15 that women will be saved through childbearing Aristotle on the Matter of Form Trott Adriel M. Trott,2019-10-08 Adriel M Trott challenges the wholesale acceptance of the view that nature operates in Aristotle's work on a craft model which implies that matter has no power of its own Instead she argues for a robust sense of matter in

Aristotle in response to feminist critiques She finds resources for thinking the female s contribution and the female on its own terms and not as the contrary to form or the male Women's Bodies, Women's Blood Charlotte Fonrobert,1996

Natalie Kampen,Elizabeth M. Marlowe,Rebecca M. Molholt,2002 What Is a Man enriches our understanding of the paradigm shift produced by feminist theory that gender is constructed not natural and is political Indeed Kampen s essay explores new ground for as she points out few scholars until very recently have written about the way that gender as a category illuminates our understanding of manhood and fewer still are the archaeologists and art historians who have studied masculinity in late antiquity Sacred Marriages Martti Nissinen,Risto Uro,2008 The title of this volume Sacred Marriages consciously plays with the traditional concept of sacred marriage but the plural form sacred marriages gives the reader an idea that something more is at stake here than a monomaniacal idea of manifestations deriving from a single prototype Following the guidelines of one of the contributors Ruben Zimmermann the editors tentatively define sacred marriage as a real or symbolic union of two complementary entities imagined as gendered in a religious context Sacred marriages plural then refers to various expressions of this kind of union in different cultures that seek to overcome to cite Zimmermann again the great dualism of human and cosmic existence The subtitle indicates that the contributors are primarily interested in different aspects of the divine human sexual metaphor that is the imagining and reenactment of a gendered relationship between the human and divine worlds This metaphor which is essentially about relationship rather than sexual acts can find textual ritual mythical and social expressions in different times and places Indeed the sacred marriage ritual itself should be considered not a manifestation of the sacralized power of sexuality experienced in sexual intercourse but one way of objectifying the divine human sexual metaphor
