Prevailing Prayer Eli Wigle,1900 The Pall Mall Magazine ,1893 Homemaking and Personal Development Veronika Van Duin,2013-09-10 What decides why things go well one day and badly another The events are the same the homemaker is the same yet on one occasion nothing works out for her and on another everything seems miraculously to fall into place Is there a special ingredient within us that we can tap into and cultivate to generate the longed for equilibrium Veronika van Duin began her career as a homemaker forty years ago Setting out with love enthusiasm and idealism she soon discovered that she had no idea of the magnitude of the task feeling herself to be very very wanting As she writes I felt guilty pressurised and inadequate much of the time I became increasingly conscious of my personal shortcomings I also felt very alone and sometimes lonely too It is from such humbling feelings that van Duin writes offering support and hope for fellow homemakers She reveals the discoveries that have provided her and many others she has taught in workshops and courses with the basic life tools for overcoming personal hindrances In this wonderfully uplifting book van Duin gives exercises for restoring balance maintaining equilibrium discovering understanding creating joy validating feeling maintaining vitality and drive developing insight finding freedom and much more Association Men ,1923 Light in the Shoe Shop Agnes Day,2013-03-06 Light in the Shoe Shop offers readers a unique and intimate glance into the day to day experience of living the cloistered life in feminine mode In her cobbler s contemplations no metaphor here the author did indeed make and mend her sisters shoes for many years Mother Agnes reveals the very simple secret of monastic life a secret she shows to be an inseparable combination of mindfulness and fidelity It is continual mindfulness of God s transformative presence and action and in response equally continual fidelity to each of the minutely detailed ways in which that loving divine presence woos the contemplative s heart Even those who strive for a more contemplative life outside of literal cloisters will find her reflections to be a great gift and inspiration This book is decidedly not just one more item in the picturesque genre of the nun s story Rather for all its slenderness the volume bears a strong witness to the fact that a human life that stakes its all on loving will gradually become transfused with light From the foreword by Simeon Leiva OCSO Reconceptualizing Study in Educational Discourse and Practice Claudia W. Ruitenberg,2017-04-07 Addressing studying as a distinct educational concept and phenomenon in its own right the essays in this volume consider study and studying from a range of perspectives Countering dominant educational discourses which place a heavy emphasis on learning and instruction the contributors explore questions such as What does it mean to study something How is studying something different from being taught about it or learning something about it What does the difficulty demanded by study mean for the one who studies and for the teacher What mode of existence does study induce The book highlights the significance of study not only or even primarily for its educational outcome but as a human activity The Unitarian Advance ,1917 The Life of A. B. Simpson Albert Edward Thompson,1920 Prayers George Dawson,1877 The Roman Breviary Catholic Church,1908 The Alliance Weekly ,1957 Power, Pathology, Paradox Marguerite Shuster,2012-07-03 This brilliant and original study explores the problem of psychopathology in the context of the larger problem of evil Dr Shuster places the problem squarely within the theological framework of spiritual warfare focusing on power as the key element The book is divided into four parts The first of these examines various views of the nature of reality The other three sections deal with power pathology and paradox respectively The section on power functions as a hinge since it defines the paradigm that is implicit in the preceding chapters and explicitly governs the chapters that follow The section on pathology establishes evil of which psychopathology is a part as a spiritual and moral category rather than as a scientific and empirical one The final three chapters explore a radical paradoxical Christian view of health whereby the power of Satan is conceived as being countered not by a like power but by the Word and Spirit of God operative through human weakness This challenging and at times unsettling book will repay the thoughtful reader with a clearer insight into what is perhaps the most perplexing problem of human existence the problem of evil
