Writing Without Words:

Writing Without Words Elizabeth Hill Boone, Walter Mignolo, 1994 The history of writing or so the standard story goes is an ascending process evolving toward the alphabet and finally culminating in the full writing of recorded speech Writing without Words challenges this orthodoxy and with it widespread notions of literacy and dominant views of art and literature history and geography Asking how knowledge was encoded and preserved in Pre Columbian and early colonial Mesoamerican cultures the authors focus on systems of writing that did not strive to represent speech Their work reveals the complicity of ideology in the history of literacy and offers new insight into the history of writing The contributors who include art historians anthropologists and literary theorists examine the ways in which ancient Mesoamerican and Andean peoples conveyed meaning through hieroglyphic pictorial and coded systems systems inseparable from the ideologies they were developed to serve We see then how these systems changed with the European invasion and how uniquely colonial writing systems came to embody the post conquest American ideologies The authors also explore the role of these early systems in religious discourse and their relation to later colonial writing Bringing the insights from Mesoamerica and the Andes to bear on a fundamental exchange among art history literary theory semiotics and anthropology the volume reveals the power contained in the medium of writing Contributors Elizabeth Hill Boone Tom Cummins Stephen Houston Mark B King Dana Leibsohn Walter D Mignolo John Monaghan John M D Pohl Joanne Rappaport Peter van der Loo The Fine Art of Writing, for Those who Teach it Henry Robinson Shipherd, 1926 Practical Letter Writing Henry Thomas Loomis, 1908 The Art of Writing Photoplays Henry Albert Phillips, 1922 The Lancet ,1897 Select Cases and Other Authorities on the Law of Property John Chipman Gray, 1889 Reports of Cases Decided in the Supreme Court of the State of Georgia at the ...
