Sisters Impossible:

The Sisters Impossible James David Landis,1981 Lily's beginning ballet classes draw her unexpectedly closer to her seemingly haughty older sister already an advanced dancer

The Sisters Impossible James David Landis,1984-08-01 The world of ballet is the center of this story of sibling rivalry

Sisters Impossible-CC , Feminist Time Against Nation Time Victoria Hesford,Lisa Diedrich,2009-12-01 Feminist Time Against Nation Time offers a series of essays that explore the complex and oftentimes contradictory relationship between feminism and nationalism through a problematization of temporality Although there has been much recent discussion in the U S of the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq and the War on Terror as signaling a new period of permanent war feminist voices have not been at all prominent in this discussion This collection considers not only the ways in which public spaces for dissent are limited but also the ways in which the time for such dissent is cut short Feminist Time Against Nation Time combines philosophical examinations of Women's Time by Julia Kristeva and The Time of Thought by Elizabeth Grosz with essays offering case studies of particular events including Kelly Oliver's essay on the media coverage of the U S wars on terror and in Afghanistan and Iraq and Betty Joseph's on the anti colonial uses of women's time in the creation of nineteenth century Indian nationalism Feminist Time Against Nation Time juxtaposes feminist time against nation time in order to consider temporalities that are at once contrary to but also drawing toward each other Yet Hesford and Diedrich also argue that because as an untimely project feminism necessarily operates in a different temporality from that of the nation againstness is also used to provoke a rupture a momentary opening up of a disjuncture between the two that will allow us to explore the possibilities of creating a space and time for feminists to think against the current of the present moment

The Extra-Ordinary Princess Carolyn Q. Ebbitt,2010-08-09 An unlikely princess triumphs in a tale with classic charm

Gender Meets Genre in Postwar Cinemas Christine Gledhill,2012-01-19 This remarkable collection challenges traditional ways of thinking about the relationship between genre and gender understanding their meeting as a mutually transformative encounter Responding to postmodernist conceptions of genre and post feminist theories of gender and sexuality these essays move beyond the limits of representation Testing new thinking about genre gender and sexuality against closely analyzed films they explore generic convention as means of putting into play what our culture makes of us while finding in genre's repetitions infinite possibilities of cross generic cross gender cross sex permutation At the same time the aesthetic and emotional dimensions of gender and sexuality come into view as elements fuelling the dramatic worlds of film genres producing in the encounter new gendered perceptions affects and effects Drawing on the intensifying transnational context of film production and on postcolonial thinking this volume includes essays that explore the transformational transactions between gender and genre as world circulating Hollywood generic practices intersect with and are stimulated by American independent European Indian and Hong Kong cinemas Such revised concepts of genre and gender question taken for granted relationships between authorship and genre between centre and
