Court is viewed from an ideological standpoint it becomes tempting for example to equate judicial restraint with conservatism and activism with a liberal political perspective In her study of the Truman Court Rudko demonstrates the fallacy of the political approach Focusing of the record of President Truman s four liberal appointees she looks at the judicial philosophy underlying important decisions involving the rights of individuals and shows how judicial issues especially the balance between restraint and activism have determined the decision making process Playwrights of Color Meg Swanson,1999 A selection of plays by fifteen playwrights of color each accompanied by a contextual essay that provides relevant historical sociological cultural and historical backgrounds Silas Bradford's Boy Joseph Crosby Lincoln,1928
