by Adrian Hoover Helen Hoover, 1963 The Long-shadowed Forest, Life in the Canadian Wilderness Helen Hoover, 1965 Hoover writes with the expert pen of a scientist and the heart of a passionate wilderness advocate She not only shares experiences of drama and renewal but also provides historical and scientific information to satisfy the curious reader The Long Shadowed Forest is illustrated throughout with Adrian's charming line drawings and will be compelling reading for nature lovers everywhere and is a welcome treat for Helen Hoover fans www.upress.umn.edu/books/H/hoover_long.html

Her Place in the Woods David Hakensen, 2025-09-10 The biography of one of Minnesota's most beloved nature writers from her career in the city to her rustic cabin on Gunflint Lake During the late 1950s through the early 1970s Helen Hoover's stories and essays of life in the wilderness on northern Minnesota's Gunflint Lake published in popular magazines and several bestselling books including The Gift of the Deer in 1966 and A Place in the Woods in 1969 found millions of fans and earned her accolades alongside nature writers like Sigurd Olson Rachel Carson Sally Carrighar and Calvin Rutstrum Hoover's own unlikely history of leaving a corporate career in Chicago for a small cabin without electricity or running water with no interest in hunting or fishing is just one chapter of the remarkable life that David Hakensen describes in Her Place in the Woods This first complete biography illuminates how Helen Hoover 1910 1984 made a place for herself and for countless readers in as she put it the world of her time Hoover defied convention Self trained and without an academic degree she worked in the male dominated metallurgical field as a researcher at International Harvester where she solved a long standing problem with the manufacture of discs for farm implements and earned a patent She and her husband Adrian a commercial artist had long dreamed of moving to a remote cabin in the woods As they started the long return drive to Chicago after a summer spent on Gunflint Lake they finally made the leap quitting their jobs with a long distance phone call from Grand Marais and figuring out the rest as they went The Hoovers were woefully unprepared for life off the grid and slowly learned how to convert sheds into chicken coops and fend off bears Social encounters presented their own challenges with Helen's fiery personality leading to clashes with hunters and other Gunflint neighbors Gradually the Hoovers settled into the rhythms of their remote homestead and Helen would craft a prolific literary livelihood from her keen observations of nature and encounters with animals in the surrounding woods Her Place in the Woods captures both an awakening to the power and fragility of the natural world and the efforts and talents of an extraordinary woman defining herself as a writer Though Helen Hoover would move on from the secluded North Woods as she wrote in her final book The Years of the Forest From this time on it would be both here and with me wherever I might be as long as I should live

YEARS OF THE FOREST Helen Hoover, 2013-08-28 This is a book that takes us inside the Hoovers' wilderness home during those sixteen Years of the Forest and lets us experience not only the joys and the techniques but also the challenges and travails of going it alone in the beautiful but not always accommodating wilderness far from the technology and services that city people take for granted It is a book of wilderness adventure it is an education in the ingenuities of wilderness housekeeping filled with practical details about making do building and rebuilding gardening for fun and for food even advice about getting away from getting away from it all Good times and Hard times good neighbors and bad neighbors the strains engendered by conflicting views and passions about the use of the environment Mrs Hoover shares her experience without stint But above all over and under and all around her straightforward and practical approach to life in the wilderness there is as always the sensitive and moving awareness of nature especially of the animals with whom she and her husband shared the forest often helping them through starving winters that is the special quality of her writing and her life The Great Lakes Forest Susan Flader, 1983-01-01

Sisters of the Earth Lorraine Anderson, 2003-12-09 Sisters of the Earth is a stirring collection of women's writing on nature Nature as healer Nature as delight Nature as mother and sister Nature as victim Nature as companion and reminder of what is wild in us all Here among more than a hundred poets and prose writers are Diane

Ackerman on the opium of sunsets Ursula K Le Guin envisioning an alternative world in which human beings are not estranged from their planet and Julia Butterfly Hill on weathering a fierce storm in the redwood tree where she lived for more than two years Here too are poems essays stories and journal entries by Emily Dickinson Alice Walker Terry Tempest Williams Willa Cather Gretel Erlich Adrienne Rich and others each offering a vivid eloquent response to the natural world This second edition of Sisters of the Earth is fully revised and updated with a new preface and nearly fifty new pieces including new contributions by Louise Erdrich Pam Houston Zora Neale Hurston Starhawk Joy Williams Kathleen Norris Rita Dove and Barbara Kingsolver
